Re: "The Politics of Police Work: What They Don't Teach in the Police Academy" (Two Articles)

Dear Mr. Morrash,

This letter is in response to your request of January 26, 2012, for review of the above referenced articles for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submissions were reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your articles, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, you are required to incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the articles are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Hi [redacted]

b6 -2

I just want to confirm receipt of your resume, did you run this by the folks at [redacted] too? I would advise doing so if you haven't.

Lastly, if you could provide a mailing address, as we are required to mail a letter once our review is complete.

I will do my best to look at this tomorrow and keep you posted.

Re: [Redacted]

Dear [Redacted]

This letter is in response to your request of August 10, 2012, for review of the above referenced outline pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP. After our review and consultation with both the Chief Division Council and Assistant Special Agent In-Charge of the Chicago Field Office, we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the outline being shared with a co-author.

However, please be aware of two future conditions: First, the final version of this manuscript must be submitted for FBI prepublication review prior to publication. Second, the information contained in this outline and the final version of your manuscript must not be published until the appeal process has been completed for all individuals mentioned.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [Redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [Redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Hi [redacted] The A/SAC and I both reviewed the submission. First, regarding any pending appeals, please be advised [redacted] [redacted] has a pending appeal and [redacted] will most likely be filing an appeal. Any final publication should probably be stayed until the appeals are complete. Next, concerning pending operations or operational techniques, it appears most of which they want to discuss was made public during the litigation. Subject: Pre-publication review

Hello [REDACTED] I was given your contact information from [REDACTED] with OIC, who has been guiding me a bit on a project that I was asked to participate in outside my employment with the FBI. In brief, I have written a book chapter that will be published in a Child Maltreatment handbook which was designed to give a Law Enforcement perspective on investigating child abuse and neglect from a system's perspective.

I would like for you to review what I have in draft form, so that I can submit to the editors of the handbook for their review and ultimate publication. I am not being compensated, and I have no plans to otherwise benefit from its publication, nor does it represent the FBI in any manner. I have discussed with [redacted] all the legal issues, but he recommended someone from your office taking a look for good- measure. Please let me know if it's ok for me to attach the draft for your review, or if there is another process by which I need to have this done- Many thanks for your attention to this matter!

Hey [redacted]

b6 -1, 2

I hope all is well and that you're having a great summer. Attached is another article, this one which I co-authored with a retired Customs agent. It's in 3 parts because that is how we submitted it to the journal. Again, my address is:

Carl Jensen

[redacted]

Thanks!

Carl

Carl,

Hi! Sorry to bother you, but could you confirm your mailing address to me? I have an approval letter for one of your submissions that was returned to us with a "no such street" error from the post office.

It was sent to:

is this correct?

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

I have another group for an intro to terrorism (2nd edition) book. I authored parts (but not all) of these various chapters. At this point, I'm not sure which is which.

BTW, how do things look for the ones I submitted in January? Thanks!!

Thanks for sending this in Mr. Jensen, we don't need the entire book, just the chapters you wrote are fine. I very much look forward to reading your work.

Feel free to contact me with any further questions or concerns.

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -1, 2

I have attached 3 chapters from a book I am writing with others titled "Introduction to Homeland Security, 2nd Edition" for pre-publication review. Specifically, I helped write the attached chapters (although some of the work was done by others). I can send the entire book if necessary. Thanks so much!

Hi [redacted]

I have some more things for Pre-pub review. They are:

- 1) A book: "The Future of Policing" by Joseph A. Schafer, Michael E. Buerger, Richard W. Myers, Carl J. Jensen III and Bernard H. Levin. This will be produced by a commercial publisher. Please note that I only wrote chapters two & three.
- 2) A RAND document titled "Cold Case Investigations": by Robert C. Davis, Carl J. Jensen and Karin Kitchens
- 3) An article titled "The Financing of Terrorism" by Jeffery M. Johnson and Carl Jensen, to be published in an academic journal
- 4) An article titled "The Concept of Social Equilibrium and its Application to Policing Terrorism in the United States" by Carl Jensen and Andrew Bringuel, to be published in an academic journal. Mr. Bringuel is an FBI SSA assigned to the Behavioral Science Unit and has likely submitted this article for review through FBI channels
- 5) An article titled "The Intelligence Analyst Training Corps: A ROTC-style Program for the Intelligence Community" by Carl Jensen to be submitted to an academic journal.

Thanks so much for everything and I hope all is well! It actually snowed down here in Mississippi for Christmas, which is amazing.
